§ 3642 Emergency Management and Disaster Administration Bureau; Authority

25 L.P.R.A. § 3642

The supreme authority regarding the direction of the Emergency Management and Disaster Administration Bureau will be exercised by the Governor of Puerto Rico, but the administration and immediate supervision will be delegated to the Secretary of the Department of Public Security of the Government of Puerto Rico.

The position of Commissioner of Emergency Management and Disaster Administration is created, who will be in charge of the daily operations of the Bureau. The Commissioner of the Emergency Management and Disaster Administration Bureau will be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Puerto Rico Senate. The position of Commissioner of the Bureau will be classified under trust service and the person appointed will hold the position at the discretion of the Governor. However, the person holding this position will prove having obtained, at a minimum, an academic master's degree from a duly accredited university institution and he/she must have knowledge and skills in administration or have not less than four (4) years of experience in matters of safety, emergency management, and disaster management.

The Commissioner of the Emergency Management and Disaster Administration Bureau will establish by regulation the order of succession in case of his/her absence, disability or death.
